O Allah, strengthen Islam and the Muslims, and humiliate polytheism (shirk) and the polytheists, and destroy the enemies of the religion, and protect the domain of Islam, O Lord of the Worlds... [He then prays: "O Allah, grant victory to our oppressed brothers everywhere. O Allah, be a supporter, helper, and defender for our brothers in Palestine and Gaza, O Lord of the Worlds. "...a group you killed, and a group you took captive. And He caused you to inherit their land, their homes, their wealth, and a land you had not trodden. And Allah is over all things competent." Through that, the Messenger of Allah, may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him, established for us that traitors and the treacherous must be met with the severest punishment. No pardon for the traitor, ever; no pardon for the treacherous, ever. Rather, the severest punishment is brought down upon him. And as they say in modern maxims, pardoning the oppressor is a betrayal of the oppressed, because it gives other oppressors the opportunity to betray and then seek pardon afterward. ... However, in this incident the Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, laid down the decisive judgment on this matter: whoever betrays, and whoever acts treacherously, has nothing for him but to be killed.

ENGLISH TRANSLATION

Likewise, God, Glorified and Exalted, commanded us to jihad to preserve the religion, against all the tyrants who seek to prevent the religion from reaching people, and He made jihad the pinnacle of Islam. Part of preserving the religion is making it the judge, making the Sharia (law) of God the judge. This is one of the points around which our discussion today revolves, making God's law the judge, which must encompass all aspects of life, at the public level as well; those addressed by it are the rulers and all people. We must make His law the judge and act according to its rulings, rather than leave them as mere memorized texts or printed books placed on shelves. We must turn these rulings and concepts into practical applications.

DIVINE LAW OVER DEMOCRATIC LAW

The difference between Sharia and law is like the difference between the Creator and the created. The decisive proof and the highest judgment belong to Sharia alone. Ruling by other than what God has revealed, or seeking judgment from it, is among the matters categorically forbidden in Sharia. The basic principle, then, is the obligation to seek judgment according to the purified Sharia within the lands of Islam and outside them.
