The blood of a Muslim person is not lawful except for three matters: whoever kills is killed, for killing a Muslim soul; the previously married adulterer, the married man who commits adultery; and the one who abandons his religion and separates from the community. These are three reasons for which it is permissible to kill a Muslim. And the one who kills him is not me or you, and the one who kills him is not the tribe or the family. No. Rather, it is the ruler in charge of the Muslims, or the ruler of the Muslims, or the judge in the region, who carries out the judgment of God.

He did not enter [Mecca] like the group of tyrants of these days, who keep striking us with chemical weapons, striking us with helicopters, striking us with napalm, striking us and striking us, and besieging us. May Allah destroy them. O Allah, do not forget these traitors; [to the audience:] do not forget these traitors in your supplications tonight. O Allah, expose traitors tonight. So this is a promising future for us from the Messenger of God, may God's prayers and peace be upon him: that this land is an Islamic land, not merely an occupied or usurped land whose people defend it, no, rather it is part of the very essence of the Muslim's creed, because the Muslim believes in what has come in the Noble Qur'an, whether he is a Muslim who is Arab, Chinese, American, Japanese, Russian, or of any nationality existing in the world today. The Muslim's creed is that it is land endowed [as waqf] for the Muslims; it is never permissible for anyone other than them to rule that land. It is not merely that they should liberate it from the occupier, no, rather it should return to the endowments of the Muslims, and none but the Muslims shall rule it, none but the Muslims, until the Caliphate comes, which the Messenger of God, may God's prayers and peace be upon him, gave glad tidings of.

Questions for policymakers

1. What review did the funding agencies conduct of statements broadcast by Islamic Center of Detroit before awarding $45 million?
2. Was Mike Duggan briefed on the institution's speakers before the event in May 2019?
3. Does the Nonprofit Security Grant Program screen applicants for incitement from their own pulpits?
