O Allah, grant victory to our brothers in Lebanon. O Allah, grant victory to our brothers in Palestine. O Allah, send down upon them Your swift victory. O Allah, bring down Your defeat upon the criminal Zionists, now, now, now, this hour, this hour, this hour. O Allah, deal with Netanyahu. O Allah, deal with his soldiers. O Allah, send down upon them thunderbolts of wrath. O Allah, send down upon them the molten lava of Your wrath and displeasure. O Allah, cause the earth to swallow them. O Allah, send down upon them Your displeasure from heaven. O Allah, send down upon them Your punishment from heaven. O Allah, tear them utterly apart and scatter them completely, and do not leave a single wrongdoer among them. O Allah, disperse their gathering, divide their party, destroy their leader, and close in upon them... Take vengeance on the wrongdoer Zionists. O Allah, send down Your punishment upon them now. O Allah, send down Your defeat upon them now. O Allah, leave not one of them remaining. O Allah, cut them limb from limb. O Allah, scatter them utterly. O Allah, curse them with a grievous curse. This is what happened in the Islamic Republic. Imam Khomeini, may God have mercy on him, said all our victories are from Ashura, and what happened in Lebanon in 2000 and then 2006, dear ones, only happened by the blessing of the Master of Martyrs, because the students of Hussein, when they drew inspiration from Hussein's lessons of dignity and freedom, were able to bring down defeat upon the Zionist enemy. And today we find the people of Gaza, dear ones, despite the calamities and disasters that befell them, walking the path of Hussein.

In the way of God. And we know that jihad in the way of God has forms, or is divided into four categories: jihad against polytheists and atheists. The polytheist is the one who says that God, glorified and exalted, has a partner, God forbid, and the atheist is the one who denies the existence of God altogether. These people face two options: either being killed or Islam.

Then the Noble Qur'an says: "If you do not go forth..." If you do not go forth with the Messenger of God and take part in the fighting, He will punish you with a painful punishment. Await the punishment of the Hereafter if you cannot bear the punishment of this world. A full year has passed since the martyrdom of the Sayyid, may God be pleased with him, and his companions and the righteous leaders who were martyred last year in the unjust war waged by the criminal Zionist regime against Lebanon. Let the people know, dear ones, and let the world and Israel know that the Sayyid's blood will not go in vain. Believe me, it will not go in vain. Today marks a year since the Sayyid's martyrdom. Some see it as a great catastrophe that befell Lebanon and Islam, and indeed it is a great catastrophe. But, dear ones, let us remember the words of God, glorified and exalted: 'Perhaps you dislike something while it is good for you.' The blood of the martyrs, the blood of His Eminence the Sayyid and his companions, the righteous martyrs who fell last year, this blood will turn into fuel that burns Israel, God willing. They see it as far off, and we see it as near. Believe me, dear ones, we must believe in the divine promise that victory ultimately belongs to the believers.

There is a text that says that Allah, Mighty and Majestic, created the non-Jews, the Gentiles, the nations, for two reasons: first, so that the Jews would not feel lonely by themselves on earth... and second, so that the Gentiles would serve them... The Talmud says that Allah created seven billion human beings so that they would serve fourteen million Jews, and today, in practice, this is what they do. Even if they do not acknowledge it, in practice their conduct is based on the idea that the rest of the peoples of the world were created only to serve them and serve their interests.

[He was shy and modest; he would not come out before them so as not to be subjected to their abuse.] [In] the words of God Almighty, He mentions that the Jews were transformed, transformed into apes and pigs. The Prophet, may God bless him and his family, on the day of the Battle of Qurayza, said to them, "O brothers of apes and pigs," addressing them with this phrase. Their chief appeared atop the fortress and said, "O Abu al-Qasim," he did not say to him "O Muhammad," he did not say to him "O Messenger of God," he said, "O Abu al-Qasim, you were not one who curses; you did not use to curse, so how is it now that you said this phrase about us?" That is, brothers, because God placed it in the Qur'an, God said it in truth about the history of the Jews, that among them were those whom God transformed into apes and pigs.

And those who fueled the conflict between the Aws and the Khazraj were always the Jews. Always, if you search, if there is discord, look for the fingers of the Jews, always, because they are the ones who fuel discord around the world. They are the ones who believe in proxy wars. They are the ones who believe in the principle of divide and rule. Let people fight one another, and we sit and watch, as now in the Middle East. Let the Shia and the Sunnis slaughter one another. Let Daesh kill the rest of the Muslims. Let the Front and what, Jabhat al-Nusra and, I don't know, Ahrar al-Sham and so on kill people in the name of Islam. And we are sitting comfortably in Israel and watching the Muslims kill one another.

Therefore God Almighty exposes the hatred of the Jews towards the believers, towards the Prophet, and towards Islam, among what God mentions about the characteristics of the Jews. God also describes them with stinginess; the Jews, you know, had the love of the calf imbibed into their hearts; they loved material wealth, they loved gold, they loved money. That's why in every country you see those who control the money and capital, who control the world's economies, they are the Jews. This is a fact. God says: 'and they were made to drink [the love of] the calf into their hearts.'

This is one branch of jihad in the way of God: jihad against the polytheists. There is [another kind of] jihad against, for example, the People of the Book, Jews and Christians, and those subsequently included with them, such as the Sabians and others, because these people face options: either the jizya (poll tax), or Islam, or killing. ENGLISH TRANSLATION

Among the most important matters that protect the ummah (the Muslim community), unite the ummah, and ward off oppression and humiliation from the ummah, and abasement from the ummah, is this wilayah (religious guardianship/authority), which must be embodied by the scholars who safeguard their religion, those who, I mean, possess the knowledge of the Family of Muhammad: the courageous one, empowered to act (literally: "with an outstretched hand"), who does not accept humiliation. I mean, now if we look at Iran, I mean, if Iran did not have this strength of resolve and the Sayyid Leader, may God preserve him, the whole thing would have fallen apart (literally: "the ornaments would have all come unstrung"). This is comprehensive and exclusive, as they say in logic, when they define something: that this Imam acts according to the wilayah of the Ahl al-Bayt, peace be upon them, and he is empowered to act. Who is it that wants to humiliate Iran? Who is it that, from Iran, wants to make a deal that would involve humiliation of the Muslims? He stands in his way. He says to him, "Come here. Whatever you may be, president of the republic or not, this you are forbidden to do." Why? Because it entails humiliation of the Muslims, humiliation of the Shi'a of the Family of Muhammad, and the Shi'a of the Family of Muhammad are never humiliated.

Our men fight on the frontiers against oppression and tyranny. They shed their blood and lifeblood and offer their sons, their daughters, and the oppressed among them as sacrifices to exalt the word of Islam, so that our dignity and honor come before all else. Every believer is responsible for taking a stand, with his tongue if able, or in any other way whatsoever, in defense of Islam, the stronghold of Islam (bayda al-Islam), and the lands of Islam. This that is happening in our region is what we must remember on the day of Eid. Those who offer their sacrifices in Mina today: our brothers offer themselves as sacrifices for the sake of allegiance to the Prophet's household (wilayah) and for the sake of Islam. This great pride rises above the hills of Jabal Amel, Iraq, and Iran. This great pride makes us an embodiment of the saying of the Commander of the Faithful, peace be upon him: "Jihad is a gate among the gates of Paradise that God has opened for His chosen friends. It is God's impregnable armor and His secure shield. Whoever abandons it out of aversion, God clothes him in the garment of humiliation, affliction encompasses him, and he is brought to abasement and degradation." [quoting the Commander of the Faithful, Ali] We, the Shi'a of Ali, will never accept this. This is our position. This is the price of our following the Ahl al-Bayt (the Prophet's family), peace be upon them. Let these tyrants desist.
